BALLOTS BACKED BY BULLETS.

A prominent Radical speaker, and a Union General in the war, delivered an address at Apollo Hall, in New York City, a few days since in advocacy of President Grant's re-election.

In the course of his remarks he said that "ballots backed by bullets should be the motto of the soldiers, and an appeal to arms should be made when one to reason had failed."

Are we to understand by this that if Grant should not be re-elected President, there would be a resort to arms, to keep him in power?

We should infer so from the language used by him in the course of the same speech. He suggested that the character of the government should become more military, and therefore more vigorous.

Fellow citizens, these are the sentiments of a number of Grant's supporters at the North! And still the Radicals in the South attempt to ridicule the position of the Conservative papers which claim that Grantism will lead to imperialism.

The utterances of Gen. Sargent clearly point out conspiracy against civil liberty and a bold and open attempt to throttle the Constitution.

President Grant is a military man by education and profession. He delights in war. He has shown his contempt for civil law. He has none of the prudence and wisdom of the statesman. If he shall be re-elected, the government will in effect become a military one, and the voice of the people will be virtually silenced.

Ballots should be backed by bullets, is the language of the President's strongest supporters!

This is in accordance with the principle enunciated by Wendell Phillips, in Massachusetts, when he publicly proclaimed the wish that Grant should be President until every man in the South over forty years of age was put under the ground.

This infamous sentiment was loudly applauded by a Massachusetts audience. The great agitator Phillips wields a large influence with certain classes at the North, and his fanaticism and violent opinions meet with a strong endorsement.

Ballots backed by bullets have been given to the Southern States as their bitter punishment since the close of the war.

In every Southern State the strong arm of military power has overruled the civil authority, and the re-election of President Grant will give him fresh leave to carry out the rigorous policy of his Administration by keeping supreme the law of the sword and the bayonet!

The re-election of Grant will be a death blow to Constitutional liberty, and the commencement of the reign of imperialism.

Every man who is opposed to a consolidated Government—who is opposed to centralization—who is opposed to the suspension of Habeas Corpus—who is opposed to bayonet rule and military despotism, should vote for Horace Greeley next Tuesday.

THE SOUTHERN VOTE.
"We feel confident of the election of Greeley and Brown. There could be no doubt about it if we could be as sure of the Southern vote. Great anxiety is felt for your State. The 'anxiety' of your people looks 'as if we must lose it, but we hope for the best.'"

The above is an extract of a private letter from Hon. Ethan Allen, Chairman of the National Committee of Liberal Republicans, to W. S. Mason, Esq., Chairman of the Liberal Republican Executive Committee of this State. The letter is dated at New York, October 30th, 1872.

Mr. Allen, from his position as Chairman of the National Liberal Republican Committee, enjoys unusual advantage for ascertaining the popular sentiment, and of forming a correct opinion. He says he feels confident of the election of Greeley and Brown. He adds, there could be no doubt of it if he could be assured of the vote of the South.

Every Southern State, except South Carolina and Mississippi, ought to vote for our candidates.

There is no reason why they should not except that the people have become so tired of politics that they cannot be induced to go to the election.

The Southern electoral vote, leaving out Mississippi and Alabama, can elect Mr. Greeley, if the States at the North, which our friends confidently expect to carry, can be relied on.

If New York, New Jersey, Delaware, Connecticut, Indiana, California, and some of the doubtful States where Greeley's chances are better than Grant's, do not deceive us, the South can defeat Grant.

Great anxiety is felt for North Carolina, says Mr. Allen. The seeming apathy of our people "looks as if we must lose it." This is sad news to go abroad. It will be a great shame if the vote of the State is cast for Grant. It will be a lasting disgrace to our people.

We must not lose North Carolina. Our vote may decide the Presidential struggle. IT MUST BE GIVEN FOR GREELY!

THE HORSE MALADY IN RALEIGH.

It was recently reported on our streets yesterday, that a horse belonging to one of our citizens, has exhibited all the symptoms of the disease now raging among the equine race in various sections of the country.

It is certain that the malady has reached Norfolk and Richmond, Virginia, and is rapidly extending to every part of the country.

It will be seen from our telegraphic dispatches that four thousand cases are reported in Baltimore, and that a number of city cars have been stopped.

The disease, which is now popularly called the epiphic to distinguish it from epidemic, made its first appearance in Montreal, Canada, about three weeks since, and a few days thereafter it reached that part of the United States, bordering on the Canadian soil.

At Niagara Falls, it is said to have attacked almost every horse, and from that point it spread to Buffalo, Rochester, Albany and other places, reaching New York City. It has since extended to other States—moving rapidly in direction of the South.

There seems to be no doubt that the malady will eventually sweep over the whole country, not sparing any State or section.

The disease has not been very fatal, but a number of deaths have occurred in New York in cases where the animals were kept at work after they were attacked.

The effects of this alarming malady on the commerce of the whole country is already being severely felt. Business is impeded—trade is injured, and every interest of the nation affected.

As the disease will almost certainly visit North Carolina in a few days, if it is not already here, we copy from an exchange the following practical hints on the subject:

The three essentials of treatment are rest, warmth and care. The horse should be excused from work, the instant any symptoms manifest themselves, even if the load be left in the street. The stables, which should at all times be clean and well ventilated, should be kept so more than ever now, and disinfectants—carbolic acid, bromochlorine, or sulphur of iron—may be freely used. The patient should be carefully groomed, the nose and eyes frequently sponged and the legs, if cold, bandaged. The drink should have "the chill taken off it" and the diet should be light and laxative—short feed or scalded bran, with limited quantities of hay. The only medicines indicated are saline laxatives, with perhaps a little anodyne to relieve the cough, but on no account should any heroic treatment be tolerated. The nauseous doses, blood-letting and other depressing remedies still in favor with horse doctors will only aggravate the disease. The patient needs absolute rest, perfect cleanliness and careful nursing; with these he will recover and probably be little the worse for the attack; without these he will die.

Cattle fever has "done for" $30,000 of stock in a single Illinois county. Bananas are ripe in Florida.

THE DUTY OF DEMOCRATS.

It is the duty of every Democrat to support Horace Greeley next Tuesday.

The defeat of Greeley is the defeat of the Democratic party.

We have endorsed him in solemn Convention. We have accepted his platform. We have nominated him as our candidate. His defeat will be our defeat and the triumph of Radicalism.

IF EVERY DEMOCRAT WILL VOTE FOR HIM NEXT TUESDAY, WITH THE AID OF THE LIBERAL REPUBLICANS HE CAN BE ELECTED.

But whatever may be his chances, every Democrat should support Horace Greeley.

OUR HONOR IS PLEDGED.

GOV. VANCE'S ADDRESS.

We have before us the able address of Ex-Gov. Zebulon B. Vance, delivered before the Graduating Class of Wake Forest College, at the Commencement last June.

The address was spoken of at the time of its delivery as one of Governor Vance's best efforts, and we are sure that the public will read it with gratification and profit.

We propose to make some extracts from it to-morrow.

COL. H. C. JONES.

We felt sure that the report concerning Col. Jones' support of O'Connor was false.

We have already referred to Col. J.'s emphatic denial of the accusation, and of his strong adherence to the cause of Greeley and Brown.

A recent issue of the Charlotte Observer, after contradicting the report, adds: "He is too true a patriot and too sensible a man to join so silly a movement as that which Blanton Duncan and his motley crew of absurd Democrats and Radical schemers inaugurated at Louisville."

MORE INTIMIDATION OF COLORED VOTERS.

We copy below from the Tarboro Southern the following statements showing how Saunders, the colored Greeley speaker, was insulted at Tarboro, by a crowd of negro Radicals, when he spoke in that town last week.

Saunders was frequently interrupted by insolent questions from ignorant and prejudiced negroes, whom he treated with great forbearance and coolness.

The treatment of Saunders is in accordance with the Radical's programme, by which they hope to keep the colored men in subjection by intimidation and violence.

How LONG?—Mr. W. U. Saunders, a colored Greeley speaker, addressed a large crowd of people, white and black on Saturday night last.

He was subjected to the most insulting and non-sensical interruptions by many colored persons.

A certain negro dealer on Grab All, who receives, of necessity, a large amount of patronage from the white people of Town, was conspicuous in this respect, and was heard to express the wish that "his country boys were on hand so that he could give the scoundrel (Saunders) a d—d good beating," which sentiment was loudly applauded and re-echoed by the negroes about him.

How long will our people continue to encourage, with their money, such a grand scam?

FARTHER NIGHT LAST.—In response to a notice given in the Southern a large crowd of whites and blacks assembled in the Court House on last Friday night to hear Mr. W. U. Saunders, a colored speaker of Maryland, who is canvassing the State for Greeley and Brown.

The room was crowded to its utmost capacity and both parties evinced much eagerness and anxiety to hear the utterances of this celebrated colored man.

To say that the whites and Liberals went away delighted would not begin to express one-half of the truth in comparison with the feelings of chagrin and sullenness manifested by the white Radicals and their negro cohorts.

As soon as the speaker commenced he was assailed by a thousand and one ridiculous questions and interruptions, which his good humor and admirable repartee enabled him to pass off with coolness to the bold assailants.

In fact, his treatment was simply disgraceful, and there is no doubt that he would have suffered some physical injury but for the fact that a large number of whites were in attendance, whose numbers were sufficient to keep down the turbulent negroes, always so ready to attack a weak enemy. The determined attitude of the whites in this instance was too much for the movers of the riot.

Mr. Saunders made a powerful and stirring speech, notwithstanding the interruptions, and his force and results may be judged from the fact that immediately at the close, one of the chief white Radicals immediately ran off for candles and lit up the Court House for a radical harangue. His attempt was a failure, as not more than a dozen negroes attended.

The lights were put out in the most quiet manner, and the few disappointed spirits slunk away disappointed and disgusted.

MEETING OF THE FORTY THIRD CONGRESS.—The Forty third Congress will not meet until the first Monday of December, 1873, unless sooner called together in extraordinary session. The impression prevails among many persons that the act of January 22, 1867, requiring a new Congress to assemble on March 4th, immediately on the adjournment of its predecessors, is still in force, but this law was repealed by the thirtieth section of the United States statute, approved April 20th, 1872, and to be found on page twelve of the laws passed at the first session of the Forty second Congress. The repealing second is contained in a deficiency appropriation act, and the entire statute is well worth examining, as a curious illustration of the incongruous measures that are crowded into one bill during the expiring hours of a session of Congress.

Abbe Bener, the Chaplain of Empress Eugenie, meditates matrimony.

DOWN WITH THE CARPET-BAGGERS.

We copy below a statement, showing how the Carpet-baggers have fled the Southern States.

Horace Greeley says to them—"Stand back, thieves!"

Carpetbag Rule in the South.

If any unprejudiced mind has a lingering doubt of the enormity of the carpetbag robbery of the Southern people, let him cast his eyes over the following:

Alabama—Debt at close of war.....	$5,000,000
Arkansas—Debt at close of war.....	2,800,000
Florida—Debt at close of war.....	1,000,000
Georgia—Debt at close of war.....	15,000,000
Louisiana—Debt at close of war.....	10,000,000
Mississippi—Debt at close of war.....	2,000,000
Tennessee—Debt at close of war.....	1,000,000
Texas—Debt at close of war.....	10,000,000
Virginia—Debt at close of war.....	10,000,000

WHAT A WOMAN SAYS.

We do not believe woman's sphere lies in the political field. For that reason, we pay but little attention to what is said by the "strong-minded" at the North, in the newspapers and at public meetings. We do not think it delicate or becoming in a woman to be delivering political harangues on the stump nor penning political articles for the press.

But the following remarks, by Miss Anna Dickinson, upon the Presidential question, recently delivered in New York, are above the standard of female politicians, and we commend the sentiments for their truthfulness and force to the consideration of our readers:

"Can any one hesitate for a moment for which he will reach when he drops the ballot? No, never! Above all, I can see why the South—nay, in passing, I can see why the Democrats of the North—should accept Horace Greeley rather than Grant. I can see that the South can vote for Greeley and not vote for Grant. They are quite ready to accept Republicanism when in its best form. They are not willing to accept the spurious Republicanism which has been given them for the last four years. If they vote to accept General Grant, they vote to accept a centralized government. If they vote for Horace Greeley, they vote for a constitutional government."

If they vote for General Grant, they kiss the chains which bound them. If they vote for Horace Greeley, they strike hands with the men who struck off those chains and say "Let us work together in the good cause as brothers." If they vote for General Grant, they are as a Christian turning Turk, who spits upon his cross—a scandalous and shameful transaction. If they vote for Horace Greeley, they simply turn their backs to the wrong and go forward to the better day dawning."

The Full Vote—The One Thing Needed.

The following from the Richmond Whig is applicable to us of North Carolina. Only a full vote is needed to carry this State triumphantly for Greeley and give the lie to the fraudulent majority of Caldwell.

The best speech which any Conservative stump can make in the present canvass in Virginia is that which will induce every hearer to vote. Our people need no arguments to convince them that the policy of reconciliation and equality and local self-government, as represented by Greeley, is far better for them and the country than Grant's blank warrants and suspension of habeas corpus, and detectives and carpet baggers, and debauchery of the ballot box.

What they need to be convinced of, is the importance of their vote. Everybody knows that there is a vast majority in the State opposed to Grantism and all its works. Each supposes every other will vote, and therefore, his vote is of no consequence. This confidence may prove fatal, and it must be dismissed at once. We must all vote to make the victory certain. The Radicals hope to catch us napping. That is their sole chance for capturing Virginia.

It will be a source of eternal regret to Virginia if the defeat of the Liberal cause shall result from the remissness of her people.

Register and vote! Let this be the watchword. Let man in each neighborhood take upon himself the task of seeing all his neighbors, and making provision that all shall go to the polls.

Tuesday, the 5th of November, is the day of election.

Scribner's Monthly for November, exhibits the excellencies characteristic of this periodical. The opening article, "Northern Russia and St. Petersburg," by Edna Dean Proctor. E. W. Sturdy gives an excellent description—fully illustrated—of the earthquake at Africa on the west coast of South America.—Dr. J. G. Holland, the editor, contributes the first chapter of a serial which will run for the next year. It is entitled "Arthur Bonnicastle." Mr. Moncure D. Conway contributes his first and second lectures before the Royal Institution on "The Demons of the Shadow," besides other entertaining matter.—Scribner & Co., New York, at $4 per annum.

The Salisbury Watchman announces the death of W. F. Gales, of Typhoid Pneumonia.

The farmers of Forsythe are behind in sowing their wheat, says the Winston Sentinel.

The Goldsboro Messenger says Capt. Settle addressed about 50 negroes in that town on Monday.

PECAN NUTS are raised on the plantation of Mrs. Mary A. Bordeaux, at Rocky Point, New Hanover county.

CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN, of Forsythe, has been lodged in jail for stealing oats from Capt. Watts of Stokes.

The Winston Sentinel says that a firm in Salem has received an order from England for a thousand pair of patridges.

The infant son of Marcus J. Battle, aged 6 months and 17 days, died on the 25th of October, as we learn from the Tarboro Southerner.

S. T. MICKY, an enterprising citizen of Forsythe, took several premiums at the Charlotte and Danville Fairs, as we learn from the Winston Sentinel.

The Winston Sentinel says that W. W. King, Esq., is doing yeoman service for Greeley in Stokes. Oh, fo. a few more such Kings in North Carolina.

A LARGE number of premiums were awarded to W. F. Shultz, for Italian bees, honey, furniture, &c., at the Charlotte Fair, as we learn from the Salem Press.

J. L. SMITH and William Williams have been arrested in South Carolina, charged with stealing a watch and money from J. L. Clark at Wilmington, N. C.

The Goldsboro Messenger says a pack of mischievous dogs killed the largest of our Deer, before we had the opportunity to remove them from the Fair Grounds.

The Winston Sentinel says that the great Radical mass meeting advertised for that place last Thursday was a failure—both speakers and audience failed to put in an appearance.

The last Messenger publishes a full list of the premiums awarded at Goldsboro. Considering the unpropitious weather, the Fair was in the highest degree, a most creditable exhibition.

The Winston Sentinel is glad to learn that Miss Jeannie Patterson, whose readings have charmed every audience before which she has appeared, intends visiting Winston sometime during the winter.

The Salem Press says that Mr. Isaac has been literally "battered out" of the Tarboro house, the other day, by an bull. If the bull had had there would Isaac be now? As we were not much damaged done.

DEWITTER, a colored Greeley spoke in Charlotte Wednesday. The Observer says he was listened to with respect and attention. Speech had considerable weight with the colored men who were present.

The editor and proprietor of the Winston Sentinel has no connection whatever with the projected enterprise of starting a newspaper at Florence, S. C. by a man named McDermid. Hope you do not hear in the old North State that it is on the line of "Anybody's business."

The local of a certain Daily in Winston will keep his readers more than enough posted about the "day's doings" in that metropolitan city. The country press might be able to make an occasional use of its columns, and thereby keep up in its envy of the superior enterprise of the Winston Sentinel.

The Tarboro Southerner says that Tom Settle, Windy Billy Henderson and one Co. beg (all Rads) spoke in Tarboro on Tuesday last to a select crowd of negro hearers.

About one hundred of the colored element assembled, all of whom displayed a wonderful lack of enthusiasm, considering the fulfurling appearance of the speakers.

Not a dozen white men attended except Battle Brye—of course a host in himself.

In order to gratify the vanity of the Winston Post, we copy the following from its spiny and highly entertaining local columns. Remember that paper is published in the most city of Wilmington:

"FOR LOCALS, the runaway and two dog fights all in one day! Hoorary. Our reporter did not see which dog whipped. We sympathize with the under dog in the fight."

No. 2. "Quite a sensation was created on Market Street this morning by a horse and driver without an owl or driver going at a rapid pace until reached 5th Street. No damage was done to either, and the animal knapping upon which side his bread was baked, kept in the middle of the street."

We hope the Post is now satisfied.

The Cape Fear is falling.

The hog cholera is prevailing in Wayne.

BARNEY HOWELL, of Wayne county, is dead.

JOHN ROBINSON is billed for Wilmington on the 5th and 6th inst.

CAPT. SWIFT GALLOWAY is doing his duty nobly, as elector for the 2nd District.

SOME thief has stolen Dr. Calhoun Hill's buggy in Duplin, says the Goldsboro Messenger.

JOHN MOZINGO, a lad, had his arm badly lacerated last Saturday by L. G. Pearsall's cotton gun at Mount Olive.

NEGO excursionists from New Berne to Goldsboro indulged too freely in betting, and had a tree fight on Wednesday.

A MAJORITY of the Grand Jury of New Hanover are opposed to indicting the Journal for libel—notwithstanding Russell's charge.

GEORGE HILL, who broke into Emanuel's store in Wilmington left his hat, by which he has been identified—so says the Wilmington Journal.

THE Grand Jury of New Hanover have not yet found a true bill for libel against the Wilmington Journal for calling Judge Bond a scoundrel.

THE clothing store of H. & B. Emanuel, of Wilmington was robbed of several articles of clothing Tuesday night. George Hill, colored, has been arrested as the perpetrator of the robbery.

THERE were between 10,000 and 12,000 persons at Goldsboro, to see Robin son's Circus last Wednesday. The Messenger says such a crowd there has not been seen since the visit of Sherman's bummers.

ISAAC P. DORTCH, Esq., of Goldsboro, will receive subscriptions to purchase a handsome gold watch for Miss H. C., of Wayne, the young lady who made the Carriage-bag tie for Nason, at the Goldsboro Fair.

THE Charlotte Observer says that one of the most flourishing papers of this State is the Salem Sentinel. It has strong claims upon the Conservative element of Western North Carolina and deserves a hearty support.

THE following are the officers of the Tarboro bank: Matthew Weddell, President. J. D. Cummings, Cashier. W. G. Lewis, Matthew Weddell, J. R. Redmond, Fred Phillips, Directors.

THE Wilmington Star of Thursday says: "The Grand Jury having intimated to the Court yesterday that they had about concluded their duties, except so far as related to the libel case against the editors of the Journal, in which a majority of the jury had refused to take any action, Judge Russell sent for them and again charged them as to their duty in the premises. We learn that His Honor was very severe in his strictures in regard to their failure to take action in the matter and plainly intimated the consequence which might ensue to them personally should they persist in refusing to carry out the instructions of the Court."

THE Wilmington Journal says: Mr. F. W. Kerchner has recently purchased and will cause to be exhibited at our approaching Fair, a fine blooded Percheron draft mare. This animal was imported by Mr. W. T. Walters, of Baltimore, from Normandy, France, is 9 years old, and weighs 1,500 pounds. In addition to superior strength, this breed of horses possesses the extra advantage of being easily kept, and is also exceedingly kind and gentle. It is of the class of horses usually kept for drating purposes in Liverpool.

We had an opportunity of seeing the animal—a fine gray, and very stout and heavily built, about the height of horse for its height we have ever seen.

Bankrupt Law—Important to Home-Settled Men.

The Statesville American says "that a case will soon be carried up to the Supreme Court of the United States, involving the question of the Constitutionality of the retrospective feature of the homestead law. If the Supreme Court of the United States should decide as it is generally believed it will, that the retrospective feature of the homestead provision of our State Constitution is in conflict with the Constitution of the United States, then all the homestead men, who owe old debts, must lose their homesteads, unless they promptly avail themselves of the benefit of the Bankrupt Law.

This is a matter that becomes all interested to inquire into at once, otherwise they may soon find themselves without a homestead. The case, we learn, will be carried up by Mr. N. H. D. Wilson, Assignee of the Bank of Cape Fear.

In Virginia, the Supreme Court of Appeals has decided that the homestead provision is not good against old debts. Judge Rives, of the U. S. Court in that State in a recent decision, held that the Bankrupt Court must accept the construction given to the homestead law by the Supreme Court of the State, and therefore, in bankruptcy, the petitioner is not entitled to the homestead exemption provided for in the Virginia Constitution, as against debts contracted prior to the adoption of that constitution. Should the Supreme Court of the United States reverse the decision of our Supreme Court on the homestead question, (and there is every reason to think it will) debtors in North Carolina who shall not have saved their homesteads by going into bankruptcy, will lose everything.

In connection with this it is but proper to state that there is pending in Congress a bill for the repeal of the bankrupt law which was introduced last winter.

The debtor who takes the benefit of the Bankrupt Law relieves himself, not only of the burden of his ordinary debts, but he removes the judgments that are hanging over his homestead, and places his home in such a condition that he can sell it free and clear of all incumbrances, if he sees fit to do so. The discharged bankrupt who had his homestead laid off to him under the State laws, will hold it in absolute fee, free from any judgment lien; for the simple reason that his discharge in bankruptcy, discharges him from any liability on the judgment; and the judgment being discharged, there can be no lien by virtue thereof. New North State.

[From the Goldsboro Messenger. Sad Affair—A Woman Burned to Death and two Circus Men Badly Bruised.

One of the most distressing affairs we have ever been called upon to notice took place last night, Wednesday, Oct. 30th. While the people were leaving the large pavilions of John Robinson's Circus and Menagerie, at the close of the evening exhibition, a colored woman named Eliza White, walked into an old open well, supposed to be about 20 feet deep, and on the same lot where the tents had been erected. Her cries soon attracted to the spot Andrew Clark, one of the circus employees, who immediately jumped in after the unfortunate woman.

A large crowd soon began to collect around the scene of the accident, each crowding the other to get a position nearest to it, when Nicholas H. Ashe, another of the circus men, while endeavoring to render aid to those already in the well, was accidentally pushed in also; there being no curb around the excavation. To add to the horrors a large lamp, such as showmen generally use, which had carelessly been placed near the edge, to enable those outside preparing to rescue to see, was upset and knocked into the well on top of the three unfortunates within. This did the work of death. The woman was soon enveloped in the fiery flame, and before assistance could be rendered burned to death; the two men were rescued alive but more or less burned about their arms, face and legs. The two sufferers were immediately taken to Dr. Hunter's infirmary where all possible assistance was rendered them by Drs. Woodley, Faison and Hunter. They are not dangerously injured. A colored man was also slightly burned.

The colored woman is the wife of Silas White. She has no children. As soon as Mr. John Robinson, Jr., heard of the sad calamity, he called at our office and deposited $20 for the purpose of defraying the expenses of a decent burial of the unfortunate victim.

We hardly know to whom the blame of this affair ought to be attached. The well opening is located only within a few feet of the sidewalk, and, though no fence around the lot, it was not covered nor had it a particle of curb. It is a wonder that some such accident has not happened before. Mr. Robinson happens to us that he, nor any of his superintendents, knew that such an opening was on the premises. There stood a house between the circus pavilion and the well.

"Longfellow's" shoe was exhibited at the Louisville Exposition.

Alton, Ill., decided its police force to be of no use, and discharged him.

DISCORDS.

It had some grains of truth at least, that the tale of the Sybarite, for whom, because one leaf was creased, the rose-stem could have no delight. I think not even sanguine youth expects the gold without alloy. But this is still the sober truth: A little pain can mar much joy.

'Tis pity, that one thwarting thought, one adverse chance, one sudden fear, or sharp regret, can turn to nought the full content that seemed so near! But this is still the sober truth: A thousand discords and harsh sounds For one harmonious perfect chord.
